ANN BELL: SPEAKER • TRAINER • CREATIVITY COACH • AWARD WINNING ARTIST

A Rice University graduate in mathematics, an accomplished award winning artist and a creativity trainer, speaker and coach, Ann worked in her early years as a computer programmer helping and teaching others the intricate parts of programming while pursuing her art career part-time.

The powerful combination of technology and art is what Ann brings to her creativity workshops. She opens minds to increased creativity, teamwork, innovation and fun.

Your teams will leave excited to get back to work and apply their creativity to solving your business problems.

HIRE ANN BELL TO BRING HER CREATIVE EXPERTISE TO YOUR GROUP.

AWAKEN YOUR INNOVATIVE GENIUS 3 Steps to Strengthening Creativity (Even If You Think You Have None!)

Everyone needs creativity that is focused and aimed toward greater success. Participants in this program

- Develop new innovative ideas and apply to their business challenges.
- Experience their own creativity in a visceral way
- Access their creativity “on demand” and apply it to solving problems at work.
- Return to work feeling valued, invigorated, inspired and more innovative.

ANN BELL'S customized workshops meet your specific goals and challenges with insight and fun. Participants return to work better able to make a creative and positive difference in whatever challenges they face.
